Donald Mial Announces Candidacy for Wake County Commissioner

Raleigh, NC - Donald Mial will formally announce his candidacy for Wake County Commissioner District 1 in the May 17 and November 8 elections. "I am ecstatic to announce my candidacy as a Wake County Commissioner. I have the educational and professional background to successfully perform this office's duties. I understand the responsibilities of this position, and I will devote the necessary attention to them every day," Mial said. Mial laid out three points for his area of focus.

"It's so crucial for the citizens of Wake County that they have a commissioner that will lead and promote what I call the "BIG 3", 1. Education, 2. Safety, and 3. Health and Human Resources. These three items require the most significant amount of the County's resources," Mial said.

For the past three decades, Mial, a retired Military officer, has been a dedicated public sector employee for North Carolina. He currently serves as a member of the City of Raleigh Board of Adjustment, as the Secretary of the Board, the Wake County Board of Adjustment, the Vice-Chair, the N.C State Employees Association, and N.C Association of Educators. He holds a myriad of masters and undergraduate degrees in Public Administration and Criminal Justice.

"I am seeking this office on the Wake County Board of Commissioners. So, I can continue advocating on behalf of the public interest, continue fighting for change, and continue making Wake County the best for our community."

The Primary Elections Day is Tuesday, May 17, 2022 and the General Elections will be held on November 8, 2022.

Donald Mial Announces Candidacy for Wake County Commissioner

Raleigh, NC - Donald Mial will formally announce his candidacy for Wake County Commissioner District 1 in the May 17 and November 8 elections. "I am ecstatic to announce my candidacy as a Wake County Commissioner. I have the educational and professional background to successfully perform this office's duties. I understand the responsibilities of this office and that they must not be taken sparingly, and I will devote the necessary attention to them every day," Mial said. Mial laid out three points for his campaign to focus on.

"It's so crucial for the citizens of Wake County that they have a commissioner that will lead and promote what I call the "BIG 3", 1. Education, 2. Safety, and 3. Health and Human Resources. These three items require the most significant amount of the County's resources," Mial said.

For the past three decades, Mial, a retired Military officer, has been a dedicated public sector employee for North Carolina. Mial served as a Member of the Wake County Board of Elections, N.C Board of Victim Compensation Commission. He currently serves as a member of the City of Raleigh Board of Adjustment, as the Secretary of the Board, the Wake County Board of Adjustment, the Vice-Chair, the N.C State Employees Association, and N.C Association of Educators. He holds a myriad of Master's and undergraduate degrees; MPA in Management and Strategy, MS in Criminal Justice, a History and Government undergraduate, and an AAS in Paralegal Technology.

"It is critical that we have a strong representative for District 1. Someone who the people will be proud of and one that they can contact as well as be a strong advocate for all the people of Wake County." Mial said. "I am seeking this office on the Wake County Board of Commissioners. So, I can continue advocating on behalf of the public interest, continue fighting for change, and continue making Wake County the best for our community."
